COACH SCHIANO

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his fifth season back and 16th overall as the head football coach “On the Banks.” The Wyckoff, New Jersey native previously led the Scarlet Knights to new heights from 2001-11 before returning to the sidelines in 2020. The second tenure in the Big Ten has seen a rebuild headed in a positive direction, highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players elevating to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support evidenced by unprecedented attendance records. Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to eight bowl appearances with six bowl championships, winning the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl, the team’s second bowl appearance over the last three years. He has coached 104 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation during his time leading Rutgers football. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections.

RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

Rutgers football continues to set records both on and off the field under the guidance of head coach Greg Schiano. Upholding the academic prestige of Rutgers University is the standard for the Scarlet Knights, who secured the nation's top Academic Progress Rate in 2010 and ranked No. 2 in 2011. The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021, 46 honorees in 2020, 41 in 2022 and 51 in 2023, including 25 earning distinguished status (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2023 semester.

The Scarlet Knights have made their impact felt in the community as well, volunteering with Special Olympics NJ, visiting local hospitals and participating in youth camps. The group has also lent its voice to critical discussions around social activism, racial justice and tolerance.

R

FACILITIES

Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is the state-of-the-art Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge and more.

The recently upgraded Marco Battaglia Practice Complex is the site where the Scarlet Knights train and practice and their downtime is spent in the the new Greg and Anna Brown Locker Room, thanks to the generosity of the Brown family.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history, Schiano has led the team to eight. That includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in school history. The postseason success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for second-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 10th among active FBS head coaches.

NFL KNIGHTS

Rutgers football has established a strong pipeline to the National Football League, with 24 Scarlet Knights on rosters ahead of the 2024 season. Fifteen former Rutgers football standouts logged snaps in the league last fall, while 10 advanced to the playoffs. Three Scarlet Knights – Sebastian Joseph-Day (San Francisco), Isiah Pacheco (Kansas City) and Logan Ryan (San Francisco) – played in Super Bowl LVIII, as Pacheco helped the Chiefs to their second consecutive Super Bowl title. Pacheco finished the game with 92 yards of total offense, becoming the fifth Rutgers football player with multiple Super Bowl rings. Pacheco was one of several offensive standouts from Rutgers in the NFL last fall, as three Scarlet Knights – Gus Edwards (13), Pacheco (9) and Bo Melton (1) – combined for 23 touchdowns during the regular season. It marked the most in an NFL season for Rutgers since Ray Rice (12), Mohamed Sanu (5), Kenny Britt (4) and Tiquan Underwood (2) combined for 23 touchdowns during the 2012 NFL campaign.

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

New Jersey is a state known for its grit, passion and energy. There is no better example of all of these things than Rutgers Football game day at SHI Stadium. Home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, SHI Stadium is located on Busch Campus in Piscataway, New Jersey. Packed, loud and 52,454 proud, SHI Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience. The fun does not just begin at kickoff. Four hours prior to the start of each game, New Jerseyans unite in the excitement of our game day experience with The Rutgers Boardwalk. Visit The Rutgers Boardwalk to enjoy carnival games, rides, live entertainment, special guests, a beer garden, New Jersey's best food trucks and more. Entrance is free, and there is tons of fun for the whole family!

Get there early for the pregame parade and pep rally featuring the Marching Scarlet Knights, Spirit Team, Sir Henry and the Scarlet Knight riding his horse "Excalibur" down The Rutgers Boardwalk just before the football team arrives. Then, join your Scarlet Knights and head coach Greg Schiano at team arrival for the traditional Scarlet Walk! Get your high-fives from the team along the Scarlet Walk as they honor the long-standing tradition of touching the First Game statue that commemorates Rutgers' victory in the first college football game ever played.

In New Jersey, our fans are just louder. Inside SHI Stadium you will find all of the traditions, characters and festivities of Rutgers Football. Be on the lookout for the Scarlet Knight, who can be seen riding his horse "Excalibur" across the field each time Rutgers scores. As the fans cheer you will also hear the boom of the revolutionary war-era cannon, fired by our historic Cannon Crew that symbolizes Henry Rutgers, the University's founder and American Revolutionary War colonel. You will also take in amazing fireworks and the classic celebratory train horn. Atop SHI Stadium, look for the number 52 displayed proudly over the 50-yard-line in honor of Eric LeGrand, a Rutgers icon and the only player in program history to have his number retired.

In the student section behind the south end zone, don't miss the Riot Squad, the best and most passionate group of student fans in the country. Next to them, you'll see and hear our Marching Scarlet Knights supplying energy and Rutgers pride to game day through fight songs, chants, as well as pregame and halftime performances. High above all of the festivities, check out SHI Stadium's brand-new state-of-the-art videoboard where you can catch exciting moments, such as the team's dramatic walk from the locker room to the field and the classic Sopranos-themed pregame video. Game day at SHI Stadium promises to be a memorable experience.

Located in the world's largest media market and the epicenter of the business world, the Rutgers campus provides access to the best that New Jersey has to offer. The New Brunswick campus is just minutes away from New York City and the Jersey Shore. Local hot spots like Philadelphia and Atlantic City are a short drive away from campus, making the Garden State a sought-after destination.

NEW JERSEY

Situated in the nation's largest media market, Rutgers student-athletes are uniquely positioned to capitalize on the exposure from nearly seven million television households in the most populated market area with over 20 million people. Rutgers also offers access to the country's most successful corporations and brands, and membership in the premier college athletics conference in the Big Ten.

CHOP4CHANGE

Chop4Change, a 501c3 charity, involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

COACHING STAFF

GREG SCHIANO HEAD COACH (16TH SEASON)

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his fifth season back and 16th overall as the head football coach "On the Banks." The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native previously led the Scarlet Knights to new heights from 2001-11 before returning to the sidelines in 2020. The second tenure in the Big Ten has seen a rebuild headed in a positive direction, highlighted by exciting victories, bowl appearances, academic success and a pipeline of players elevating to the NFL. All of this has taken place with increased fan support evidenced by unprecedented attendance records. Overall, Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to eight bowl appearances with six bowl championships, winning the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl, the team's second bowl appearance over the last three years. He has coached 104 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation during his time leading Rutgers football. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections.

Coming back to Piscataway in Dec. 2019, Schiano has built the program with a foundation based on F.A.M.I.L.Y., TRUST and CHOP, emphasizing player and cultural development. The Scarlet Knights showed continued progress in 2023 with seven wins for the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The regular season schedule ranked as the second-hardest nationally by ESPN, including wins over bowl participants Northwestern and Virginia Tech, plus an 18-point comeback in the fourth quarter to top Michigan State and 276 rushing yards to defeat Indiana on the road. In addition, Rutgers saw 13 different players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the second-highest total for the program in a season. The defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. Additionally, the Scarlet Knights recorded their best numbers in Big Ten play for total (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1). Overall, RU held 10 opponents under 30 points, five under 20 points and three in single digits. RB Kyle Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards, tied for fourth-most in a season in Rutgers history. The Scarlet Knights were the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) and one of just four teams in the league to increase its number from 2022. On special teams, RU scored two game-changing touchdowns off blocked punts in wins over Indiana and Miami, leading the nation with eight blocked punts over the last two seasons. PK Jai Patel went 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) on field goals, the most accurate season in program history.

The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with DB Max Melton selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Cardinals at No. 43 overall, the highest pick from RU since 2010. That followed DB Christian Braswell's selection by the Jaguars in 2023. In addition, 13 others have signed contracts as free agents over the past two seasons.

In 2022, Schiano led Rutgers to a 3-0 start. The win over Temple marked the 79th victory for Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set its average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise. Seven home games over the last two seasons have been sold out. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the 2022 Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The 2021 season featured two Big Ten road wins, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by Korsak, an All-America honoree by multiple outlets, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games and five signing NFL contracts, including Pacheco, who has won Super Bowl titles each of his first two pro seasons as the Chiefs' starting tailback. With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers' MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth-oldest bowl game.

On the recruiting front, Schiano and his staff have continued to build the roster and fill the pipeline starting with the top players in New Jersey, as well as in the State of Rutgers and the Big Ten footprint. Rutgers signed seven four-star prospects across multiple media outlets for the 2024 class, while welcoming in the top 247Sports New York prospect each of the last three seasons. The 2022 class finished ranked as the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports. In addition, the program has successfully used the transfer portal to identify talent and cultural fits to immediately impact the program.

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high with three Big Ten victories, all away from Piscataway to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined. The Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top-three teams, with WR Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and LB Olakunle Fatukasi both earning first-team honors. Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, with eight games of at least 20 points after reaching the mark only five times in the prior four years. The 13.4 more points per game than 2019 marked the fourth-best improvement nationally following the regular season. Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in elections. The initiative also involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

SCHIANO HAS LED RU TO EIGHT BOWL GAMES

The program also achieved academic success with 195 student-athletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list the past four years, resetting the program record twice. The team posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2023 semester.

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history, Schiano has led the team to eight. That includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in school history. The postseason success resumed with a win in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for second-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 10th among active FBS head coaches.

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004. The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992 and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU's first bowl appearance since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program's first national top-10 ranking, peaking at No. 7, and won a bowl championship with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. "Pandemonium in Piscataway" was achieved with a 28-25 upset of No. 3 Louisville in front of a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top-25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history. RU was ranked in 20 weeks during Schiano's first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). RU also became the first and only team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (QB Mike Teel), a 2,000-yard rusher (RB Ray Rice) and two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Kenny Britt & WR Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the PapaJohns.com Bowl to finish with seven-straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top-25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year with a 31-0 shutout of No. 23 USF and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season. In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth-straight bowl win.

Schiano has coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by yards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL. Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,812 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. Teel was a three-year starter and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards.

Schiano has also turned special teams into a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 71 kicks to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 62 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including 11 since 2020. PK Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status, with Korsak also achieving national accolades in helping RU set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25) in 2021 and leading the country in punt defense with minus 11 return yards against on the way to winning the Ray Guy Award in 2022. In 2023, Patel recorded the most accurate field goal season in program history with 15-of-18 connections (83.3 percent).

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, the Rutgers football team is also committed fully to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term. DB Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, LB Brandon Renkert earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while FB Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006. The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021, 46 honorees in 2020, 41 in 2022 and 51 in 2023, including 25 earning distinguished status (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2023 semester.

Known as a tireless recruiter with the ability to spot talent and develop players, Schiano has mentored 104 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in Britt (2009), OL Anthony Davis (2010) and DB Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl during his illustrious professional career. Both Melton (Seahawks) and Pacheco (Chiefs) were drafted in 2022, with Pacheco emerging as one of the best stories in the NFL with 830 rushing yards, five touchdowns and a victory in Super Bowl LVII as a rookie. He followed that with another championship to cap the 2023 season in becoming the first starting running back to win consecutive Super Bowls during his first two years in the league. Super Bowl LVIII saw Pacheco face off against Logan Ryan (49ers), as 19 former RU players coached by Schiano have reached the big game, with 13 earning rings. The NFL pipeline continued in 2023, as Braswell was taken by the Jaguars and six others signed contracts. Then in 2024, Melton went in the second round to the Cardinals, marking the highest pick for RU since 2010, and seven more signed contracts. Overall, 15 Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered 2023 training camp active on NFL rosters: DB Tre Avery, DB Christian Braswell, FB Michael Burton, WR Aron Cruickshank, LS Andrew DePaola, OL J.D. DiRenzo, DL Michael Dwumfour, LB Olakunle Fatukasi, DB Christian Izien, TE Tyler Kroft, LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams, WR Bo Melton, RB Isiah Pacheco, WR Sean Ryan and DB Avery Young.

Schiano accepted the head coach position for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Jan. 2012 and spent two seasons at the helm of the NFL franchise. Schiano returned to the sidelines as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State in 2016. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: S Malik Hooker (Colts), CB Gareon Conley (Raiders) and CB Marshon Lattimore (Saints). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three "pick-sixes" and third with seven interceptions that season. The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles, plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition, OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals. The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, LB Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus First Team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. S Ed Reed was also a consensus First Team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame. Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third-down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest yards allowed.

Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Schiano previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before.

Schiano was a three-year letterwinner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

RUTGERS

- In 2023, Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), led by the conference's leading rusher, RB Kyle Monangai (1,262 yards). Monangai was RU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012, voted Second Team All-Big Ten and rated as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus. The offense had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007, and its season total of 2,193 yards ranked No. 10 in the school record books.
- QB Gavin Wimsatt set a Rutgers quarterback record with 497 rushing yards, most in the Big Ten and No. 20 nationally among quarterbacks. His 143 rushing yards at Indiana set an RU game high for a quarterback. Wimsatt's 2,232 yards of total offense ranked 10th most in a season in program history, accounting for 20 touchdowns (11 rushing, nine passing).

- Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game. The offensive line saw three honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position in a year since joining the league.
- Ciarrocca first arrived at Rutgers as wide receivers coach in 2008 in a room that included eventual first-round pick WR Kenny Britt. The wide receiver had eight 100-yard receiving games to set the program record with 1,371 receiving yards in a season, helping the Scarlet Knights to a victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. He would earn All-America honors.
- In 2009, Ciarrocca was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide QB Tom Savage to Freshman All-America status after setting the Big East record for most passing yards by a true freshman in a season. The Scarlet Knights went 9-4 and defeated UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.
- Others to be drafted in the NFL after being coached by Ciarrocca at RU include OL Anthony Davis (first round) and WR Mohamed Sanu (third round).

MINNESOTA

- Ciarrocca helped Minnesota to a nine-win season and a victory in the Pinstripe Bowl in 2022. The Golden Gophers had two from the offense earn All-America status in C John Michael Schmitz (first team), a finalist for the Rimington Trophy and second-round draft pick of the New York Giants, and RB Mohamed Ibrahim (second team). All five linemen plus Ibrahim, who led the nation with 20 rushing touchdowns and Big Ten with 1,665 rushing yards, and TE Brevyn Spann-Ford earned All-Big Ten honors. The unit ranked third nationally and first in the Big Ten in both third down conversion percentage (52.1) and time of possession (34:31), while being second in the league in rushing offense (207.3) and least sacks allowed (1.15).
- In 2019, Ciarrocca helped Minnesota to an 11-2 record with seven Big Ten wins and a final Associated Press ranking of No. 10. He was named one of 15 semifinalists for the Broyles Award, which is presented annually to the best assistant coach in college football, as the Golden Gophers joined LSU and Alabama and the only schools in the nation to produce two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Tyler Johnson and WR Rashod Bateman) and a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Rodney Smith).

JOE HARASYMIAK

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Joe Harasymiak (hare-uh-SIM-ee-ack) is in his third season as the Rutgers football defensive coordinator in 2024. A native of Waldwick, New Jersey, Harasymiak also leads the linebackers and has been a nominee for the Broyles Award each of the past two seasons. The Scarlet Knights have improved by 83 yards per game since he joined the staff. He previously served two seasons as co-defensive coordinator at Minnesota and as head coach at Maine.

 2011: Maine (defensive assistant/defensive backs)
 2009-10: Springfield College (graduate assistant/wide receivers/quarterbacks)
 2008: Maine Maritime Academy (assistant coach)

- In 2024, Harasymiak took over coaching linebackers in addition to defensive coordinator responsibilities.
- The 2023 defense continued to make strides on the way to helping Rutgers secure its first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. Harasymiak earned a spot as a nominee for the Broyles Award, an honor bestowed to college football's top assistant coaches, for the second consecutive year.
- The unit ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era and best since 2012, holding five opponents under 300 yards. RU limited 10 opponents under 30 points, five under 20 points and three in single digits to rank No. 32 nationally in scoring defense (21.2). In addition, Rutgers ranked 10th nationally in passing defense (176.3) and 15th in red zone defense (75.6 percent), posting 11 stops, while its rushing defense mark of 137.2 was the best for the team in the Big Ten era.

- In Big Ten play, Rutgers posted its best marks for total defense (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1) in a conference season since joining the league. According to the Pro Football Focus Big Ten rankings, LB Mohamed Toure graded as the No. 7 linebacker in the league, DB Max Melton as the No. 11 cornerback, DL Aaron Lewis as the No. 12 edge defender and DB Flip Dixon as the No. 12 safety, as seven players from all three levels of the defense were honored in the All-Big Ten voting. Melton was drafted in the second round by the Cardinals, the highest pick from RU since 2010, while LB Deion Jennings and DL Isaiah Iton also signed NFL contracts.
- In 2022, Harasymiak claimed honors from the Broyles Award for the first time. Statistically, the unit allowed 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights posted their best mark in total defense (349.8) in 10 years at the time. The defense had eight players make multiple starts after entering the season with four or less career starts previously.
- RU had seven defenders recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, led by defensive lineman Aaron Lewis collecting third-team honors. DB Christian Braswell was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft as one of four players from the defense to sign a contract.

MINNESOTA

- Harasymiak joined the Golden Gophers for the 2018 Quick Lane Bowl and spent the next three full seasons in Minneapolis.
- In 2021, Minnesota ranked third in the nation in total defense (278.8), fourth in first downs defense (202), sixth in scoring defense (17.3), eighth in rushing defense (97.5) and ninth in passing yards allowed (181.2). The Golden Gophers held eight-straight opponents, and 10 of the last 11, below their total offensive average entering the game.
- In 2019, Harasymiak mentored S Antoine Winfield Jr., S Jordan Howden and S Chris Williamson. Winfield led Minnesota with 88 tackles and named a unanimous All-American and Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. Howden and Williamson finished tied for fourth on the team with 57 tackles and each produced critical interceptions during the season. The Gophers ended the year with 14 interceptions, which ranked second in the Big Ten. Winfield Jr. went on to be drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and earned a spot in the Pro Bowl.

MAINE

- Harasymiak served as head coach at Maine from 2016-18. He guided the Black Bears to an overall record of 20-15 and a 15-9 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association.
- In 2018, Harasymiak led the Black Bears to a 10-4 overall record, a 7-1 conference mark and a CAA championship. Maine advanced to its first Football Championship Subdivision national semifinal in school history under his guidance. Harasymiak earned FCS Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.
- Harasymiak previously served as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach at Maine in 2011 and then coached the defensive backs from 2012-13. He was promoted to defensive coordinator and coached the linebackers from 2014-15.

MARK ORPHEY CORNERBACKS

Mark Orphey (or-fay) is in his third season as the Rutgers cornerbacks coach in 2024. The Houston native has helped the Scarlet Knights to one of the top passing defenses nationally while developing players for the NFL. He arrived in Piscataway after spending the 2021 season as a senior defensive analyst for national runner-up Alabama. Orphey has been part of six bowl games and the FCS playoffs, in addition to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

COACHING HISTORY

2022-present: Rutgers (cornerbacks)
2021: Alabama (senior defensive analyst)
2019-20: Utah State (secondary)
2017-18: Montana State (secondary)
2014-16: South Carolina (quality control)
2013: South Carolina (defensive graduate assistant)
2011-12: Texas Southern (cornerbacks)

THE ORPHEY FILE

RUTGERS

- The defense in 2023 helped Rutgers to its first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The unit ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. RU limited 10 opponents under 30 points, five under 20 points and three in single digits to rank No. 32 nationally in scoring defense (21.2). In addition, Rutgers ranked 10th nationally in passing defense (176.3) and 15th in red zone defense (75.6 percent), posting 11 stops. In Big Ten play, Rutgers posted its best marks for total defense (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1) in a conference season since joining the league.
- DB Robert Longerbeam and DB Max Melton, the two starting cornerbacks, were voted honorable mention All-Big Ten. Longerbeam was one of two Big Ten players with at least 10 pass breakups, ranking fourth in the league with 0.85 passes defended per game, while Melton posted a team-high three interceptions as the No. 11-ranked cornerback in the conference by Pro Football Focus. Melton earned an invitation to the Reese's Senior Bowl and NFL Combine, and was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the second round, the highest RU pick since 2010.

- In 2022, Orphey helped the defense improve by allowing 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights posted their best mark in total defense (349.8) in 10 years at the time.
- The Scarlet Knights saw two cornerbacks earn honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in DB Christian Braswell (third in the Big Ten with 1.17 passes defended per game) and Melton (10 pass breakups, two interceptions and a nation-leading three blocked punts). Braswell was drafted in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

ALABAMA

- In 2021, Orphey worked on head coach Nick Saban's staff helping to develop the defensive game plan and assisting with defensive backs. The Crimson Tide won the SEC Championship Game over Georgia, defeated Cincinnati in the Cotton Bowl Classic and advanced to the CFP National Championship Game.

UTAH STATE

- Orphey served two seasons as the secondary coach for the Aggies (2019-20).
- In 2020, Orphey helped S Shaq Bond earn honorable mention All-Mountain West for the second-straight season, totaling 7.8 tackles per game with three pass breakups and an interception. The defense ranked 35th nationally with 2.67 sacks per game.
- In 2019, the Aggies' defense forced 24 turnovers (13 fumbles, 11 interceptions) to rank second in the Mountain West and 15th in the nation. The team appeared in the Frisco Bowl. S Troy Lefeged Jr. led the team with 104 tackles, adding four pass breakups, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

MONTANA STATE

- During two seasons at Montana State (2017-18), Orphey coached four players to all-conference honors (Big Sky) in S Jahque Al-ley (2018), CB Greg Filer (2018), S Brayden Konkol (2018) and S Bryson McCabe (2017).
- During the 2018 season, Orphey helped the Bobcats to an 8-5 record, including a 5-3 mark in the Big Sky Conference, and an appearance in the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the first time since 2014. MSU also advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 2012. RUTGERS

- In 2023, Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
- WR Christian Dremel recorded at least one catch in all 13 games, leading the team with 36 receptions for 468 yards. He scored receiving touchdowns in three consecutive games (Virginia Tech, Michigan, Wagner) to become the first Scarlet Knight since 2016 to achieve the feat. WR JaQuae Jackson ranked as the No. 9 wide receiver in the Big Ten by Pro Football Focus.
- Brock served as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Scarlet Knights in 2012, helping the team to a Big East championship. The unit saw four players earn All-Big East honors, including WR Brandon Coleman, who tied the school record for single-season receiving touchdowns (10).

ATLANTA FALCONS

- Brock served a five-year stint in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons (2017-21), focusing on wide receivers.
- In 2020, WR Calvin Ridley recorded single-season career highs in receptions (90) and receiving yards (1,374), while tallying a team-high nine touchdown receptions to earn All-Pro honors. The first-round pick eclipsed 100 receiving yards in eight games in 2020, the most in the NFL and the third most in a single season in franchise history.
- Brock also coached perennial All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection WR Julio Jones, who led the NFL with 1,677 receiving yards in 2018. Former Scarlet Knight WR Mohamed Sanu (838) and Ridley (821) also topped 800 receiving yards that season, as the position group combined for 25 receiving touchdowns. Ridley led rookies in receiving yards and touchdowns (10).

DELAWARE

- Prior to moving to the NFL, Brock served as head coach at Delaware for four seasons (2013-16). During his tenure, seven Blue Hen players claimed All-America honors, 21 were named All-CAA and over 50 earned CAA All-Academic honors. In addition, five of his players signed professionally, led by DL Zach Kerr (Indianapolis), TE Nick Boyle (Baltimore), OL Erle Ladson (Cleveland) and DB Travis Hawkins (New England) in the NFL, and RB Andrew Pierce (Tri-City) in the IFL.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Brock served as senior analyst in 2022 at Texas, as the Longhorns finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 25.
- Before arriving at Rutgers the first time, Brock's coaching stops at the collegiate level included Boston College (2009-11), Kansas State (2007-08), North Carolina (2005-06), Temple (2002-04) and Hofstra (1995-01). He was offensive coordinator for seven of those seasons and mentored numerous NFL standouts, including WR Jordy Nelson, WR Marques Colston and WR Hakeem Nicks.

DAMIERE SHAW

RUNNING BACKS

Damiere Shaw is in his fifth season at Rutgers and second as running backs coach in 2024. The 2023 season saw Rutgers produce the leading rusher in the Big Ten. A native of Chester, Pennsylvania, Shaw previously coached RU wide receivers after joining the Scarlet Knights as the director of player development. He has previous coaching experience with the Carolina Panthers and at Baylor, Fordham and Temple, and earned a spot on the 247Sports 30Under30 list in 2022.

 2017-18: Baylor (offensive quality control)
 2016: Temple (wide receivers graduate assistant)
 2013-15: Temple (student assistant)

RUTGERS

- Shaw took over as running backs coach in 2023 and helped mentor RB Kyle Monangai to a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights were the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
- Rutgers averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), improving by 40.5 rushing yards per game compared to 2022. That included four games with at least 250 rushing yards, matching the number of such games the previous six seasons combined (70 games). The Scarlet Knights had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007. The 2,193 rushing yards overall were 10th most in a season in program history.
- Monangai earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors, the highest for a Rutgers running back since joining the league, after recording seven 100-yard games, including a high of 165 versus Temple and 159 versus No. 1/3 Ohio State, the second most ever for a Scarlet Knight against a ranked opponent. He graded as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus, forcing 73 missed tackles to lead the conference.

- Shaw was elevated to wide receivers coach prior to spring practice in 2022. WR Sean Ryan led the Big Ten with 16.9 yards per reception that season and signed with the Baltimore Ravens.
- Shaw was selected as a member of the 2022 247Sports 30Under30 list, which identifies 30 rising stars in the coaching and personnel space under the age of 30.
- Shaw joined the Scarlet Knights in 2020, spearheading initiatives as the director of player development in preparing student-athletes for personal, academic and athletic success. That included the creation of Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The program also involves giving back to the community through various forms.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Shaw was hired as assistant wide receivers coach for the Carolina Panthers in the winter of 2020 before joining the Scarlet Knights.
- As the wide receivers coach at Fordham in 2019, Shaw mentored three wideouts to over 600 receiving yards, the only team in the Patriot League to achieve the feat. That included rookie WR DeQuece Carter, who broke the school record for receptions (53) and receiving yards (723) by a freshman. Overall, the Rams paced the conference in total offense and scoring offense, placing second in passing offense.
- Shaw spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as an offensive quality control coach at Baylor. The job included assisting with coaching the wide receivers, identifying opposing team's coverages and personnel tendencies on game day, and breaking down opposing team's game film during the week. Shaw helped develop WR Jalen Hurd, a third-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers and the 2018 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. He also mentored WR Denzel Mims, a second round pick of the New York Jets in 2020, who finished third in school history in touchdowns, fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yards. The Bears won the 2018 Texas Bowl over Vanderbilt.
- Shaw worked one season as a graduate assistant coach for Temple in 2016, assisting with the wide receivers. The Owls won the American Athletic Conference championship that season.
- Shaw made the transition from player to coach following an injury as a freshman. He served as a student assistant focusing on wide receivers with the Owls for three seasons from 2013-15. During the tenure, Shaw worked closely with WR Robbie Chosen, who posted the second most receiving yards in program history, and WR Keith Kirkwood, both NFL receivers.

RUTGERS

- In 2023, Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) on the way to securing the program's first winning season since 2014 and a victory in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
- Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game. That included four games with none permitted, 10 with one or less and no games with more than three. The total of 14 is the fewest permitted for the team in a season since 2012. In addition, the Scarlet Knights ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten and 12th nationally with just 4.1 tackles-for-loss permitted per game.
- Three offensive linemen were honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position group in a year since joining the Big Ten. That included OL Hollin Pierce being rated as the No. 6 tackle in the conference by Pro Football Focus, with OL Bryan Felter (guard) and OL Gus Zilinskas (center) also claiming recognition.
- The Scarlet Knights averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), led by the conference's leading rusher, RB Kyle Monangai (1,262 yards), who was RU's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012, voted Second Team All-Big Ten and rated as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally by Pro Football Focus. The offense had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007, and its overall total of 2,193 yards ranked No. 10 in the school record books.

NEW YORK GIANTS

- Flaherty was the offensive line coach for the Giants for 12 seasons (2004-15), helping the offense finish in the top 10 in the NFL six times and winning two Super Bowls (XLII, XLVI). The team had a 1,000-yard rusher in seven seasons, including the three best individual rushing seasons in team history (RB Tiki Barber, 2004-06). His unit, anchored by Pro Bowl selections OL David Diehl, OL Shaun O'Hara (Rutgers graduate) and OL Chris Snee, also protected QB Eli Manning, who started 183 consecutive games during Flaherty's tenure with the franchise and passed for 4,000-plus yards on five occasions.
- In 2015, the Giants totaled 5,952 net yards, the third most in franchise history. Flaherty's pass-blocking unit surrendered just 27 sacks, tied for the fourth fewest in the league. Manning set the franchise record for single-season completions (387). He also passed for 4,432 yards and 35 touchdowns, the second-best marks in team history. That followed a 2014 season that saw the Giants total 5,875 net yards, the fifth most in team history.
- Flaherty helped the Giants overcome the retirements of two long-time offensive linemen (OL Rich Seubert and O'Hara) in 2011 to win Super Bowl XLVI over New England. Despite the offensive line using five different starting lineups that season, the offense set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. They allowed just 28 sacks, the seventh fewest in the league.
- In 2010, the Giants set a franchise record with just 16 sacks allowed, tied for the best mark in the league. They went five consecutive games without allowing a sack, which was a team record.
- The Giants won Super Bowl XLII at the end of the 2007 season over the previously unbeaten Patriots.

- Vallone served as a quality control coach the last three seasons after spending 2020 as an offensive graduate assistant for the Scarlet Knights. Focusing on the offensive line, Rutgers saw two from the unit earn honorable mention All-Big Ten in 2020.
- In 2023, RU capped the season with a 31-24 victory over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl to secure the program's first winning season since 2014. The Scarlet Knights finished as the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1), led the league and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game and placed fifth in the conference with 168.7 rushing yards per game, posting 2,193 rushing yards.
- Three offensive linemen were honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position group in a year since joining the Big Ten. That included OL Hollin Pierce being rated as the No. 6 tackle in the conference by Pro Football Focus, with OL Bryan Felter (guard) and OL Gus Zilinskas (center) also claiming recognition.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Before coming back to RU in 2020, Vallone served as defensive line coach at Fordham for two seasons (2018-19). That included working as associate head coach in 2019. In his first year with the Rams, he guided a line that helped the defense lead the Patriot League and rank 20th in the NCAA FCS in tackles-for-loss (7.5/game). The team then placed 36th nationally with 2.42 sacks per game in 2019.
- Vallone joined the Fordham staff after spending two years at St. Lawrence University as the team's defensive coordinator (2016-17). He also coached the linebackers in 2017 and the defensive line in 2016. In 2017, Vallone saw LB Skyler Williamson earn Liberty Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Region honors along with three other players who earned All-Liberty Conference accolades. The St. Lawrence defense led the Liberty Conference in fourth down conversions (seventh in the NCAA), tackles-for-loss (12th in the NCAA), first downs defense (41st in the NCAA), third down conversions and sacks.
- In 2016, the Saints' defense finished as one of the most dominant in program history. St. Lawrence was the top-ranked team in the Liberty League in 13 defensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in the nation in five categories, including scoring defense (second, 11.0 points allowed per game), defensive touchdowns (third, six in 10 games), first downs defense (seventh overall and third among teams that played more than eight games, 129 allowed), red zone defense (seventh, .500) and tackles-for-loss (ninth, 9.1 per game). Among the Saints' defensive leaders was DL Chyron Brown-Wallace, the most decorated St. Lawrence football player in nearly 35 years. He earned the highest vote total among NCAA Division III athletes for the Cliff Harris Award, which recognizes the best small college defensive player in the nation. A two-time American Football Coaches Association First Team All-American, Brown-Wallace was the 2016 Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year and earned D3football.com All-American honors.
- Vallone started his coaching career as St. Lawrence's defensive line coach in 2014 before spending 2015 as Rutgers' assistant defensive line coach.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- Vallone was part of three RU teams that claimed bowl championships in five seasons (2008-12) with the program.
- A four-year starter for the Scarlet Knights at defensive tackle, Vallone was a First Team All-Big East selection and the school's Best Rush Lineman Award winner as a senior after posting a team-high 12.5 tackles-for-loss. He finished his career with 195 tackles and made 51 consecutive starts. A Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America selection in 2009, he scored a touchdown against North Carolina Central after recovering a fumble in the end zone in the first game of the 2011 season.
- Vallone finished his collegiate career holding the program record for games played (53). Following graduation, he had professional stints with three NFL teams, including the Miami Dolphins, Detroit Lions and New England Patriots. He also spent time in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes.
- Vallone graduated from Rutgers in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in economics. He attended St. Anthony's High School on Long Island and earned New York Daily News Player of the Year as a senior. The Friars went 31-2 with a CHSFL AAA Championship each season during Vallone's scholastic playing days.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers football (1-0, 1-0) delivered a Big Ten Conference win to open the 2023 season, defeating Northwestern (0-1, 0-1), 24-7, on Sunday afternoon in front of 53,026 fans at SHI Stadium. The Scarlet Knights scored touchdowns on their first two drives and held the Wildcats scoreless the first 59 minutes, outgaining NU, 285-201.

QB Gavin Wimsatt accounted for both a rushing and passing score, as he completed 17 passes for 163 yards and an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Ian Strong. RB Kyle Monangai rushed for 49 yards and a 15-yard touchdown to pace RU's rushing attack.

Rutgers' defense allowed just 13 first downs and 12 rushing yards, which was the lowest rushing total allowed by the defense in a Big Ten game. DL Rene Konga, DB Shaquan Loyal, LB Tyreem Powell, LB Mohamed Toure and DL Kenny Fletcher all registered sacks, while DB Robert Longerbeam and DB Max Melton recorded interceptions. The 201 total yards against were also the least permitted in a Big Ten game since joining the conference.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Rutgers football (6-2, 3-2) scored 17 unanswered points on the way to defeating Indiana (2-5, 0-4), 31-14, on Saturday at Memorial Stadium. With the victory, the Scarlet Knights became bowl eligible.

Rutgers rushed for a Big Ten school record 276 yards, led by 143 from QB Gavin Wimsatt and 109 from RB Kyle Monangai. Wimsatt's 143 yards were the most by a quarterback in program history.

The Hoosiers opened up the scoring on a 35-yard touchdown pass on the opening drive of the game. RU had a strong response, marching right down the field on a 15-play, 75-yard touchdown drive capped off by a one-yard rush by Wimsatt. On the opening play of the second quarter, DB Shaquan Loyal blocked the IU punt, which DB Eric Rogers scooped up and returned 17 yards for his first career touchdown.

While a Hoosier touchdown tied the game 14-14 with 3:58 left in the half, DB Robert Longerbeam pounced on a fumbled punt to set up the RU offense late in the half. PK Jai Patel drilled a 21-yard field goal, his eighth of the season, giving the Scarlet Knights a 17-14 lead at the half.

Rutgers received the opening kick of the second half and put together a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, capped by another rushing touchdown from Wimsatt to make it 24-14. Wimsatt followed it up with his record-breaking score, rushing 80 yards for a touchdown with 13:11 remaining in the game to give him 143 on the day.

BRONX, N.Y. – Rutgers football (7-6) defeated Miami (7-6), 31-24, on Thursday at the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. It marked the program's seventh bowl championship, sixth under head coach Greg Schiano and second victory in the Pinstripe Bowl, as the Scarlet Knights secured their first winning season since 2014.

Down 17-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the third quarter, RU scored 17 unanswered points to collect the win over the Hurricanes. DB Trevor Yeboah-Kodie blocked a punt at Miami's one-yard line, which was recovered by DB Timmy Ward in the end zone for a touchdown, while QB Gavin Wimsatt's second rushing score of the day and a 35-yard field goal from PK Jai Patel helped Rutgers to the come-from-behind victory.

RB Kyle Monangai earned the game's MVP trophy after he finished with 25 carries for 163 yards and a touchdown. It was the seventh 100-yard rushing game for Monangai, who finished the season with 1,262 yards on the ground.

LB Deion Jennings led the defense with nine tackles and one for loss, LB Mohamed Toure added eight tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a sack, while freshman LB Abram Wright recorded his first career interception.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP

- Rutgers defeated Miami, 31-24, in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.
- Rutgers improved to 7-5 all-time and 6-2 under head coach Greg Schiano in bowl games. Schiano is 13-5 in bowl games as a coach, additionally counting games at Penn State, Miami and Ohio State.
- Overall with extra time, Rutgers is 11-4 in season openers, 11-6 coming off a bye week and 6-2 in bowl games under head coach Greg Schiano.
- Head coach Greg Schiano's six bowl wins are tied for second-most among active Big Ten head coaches and tied for 10th among active FBS head coaches nationally.
- Rutgers set a team bowl record with 45 rushing attempts and blocked a punt for the second time in a bowl, also in 2008 versus NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl.

OFFENSE

- Rutgers was the most improved team in the Big Ten by total offense (+24.1) and one of just four teams in the league to increase its average from 2022 (Wisconsin +17.6, Illinois +13.0, Indiana +4.6).
 - Rutgers scored 34 offensive touchdowns, 12 more than in 2022.
 - Rutgers rushed for 2,193 yards, its best total in the Big Ten era, most since 2007 and 10th-highest mark for a season in program history.
 - Rutgers averaged 168.7 rushing yards per game (fifth in the Big Ten), improving by 40.5 rushing yards per game compared to 2022. That included four games with at least 250 rushing yards, matching the number of such games the previous six seasons combined (70 games). The Scarlet Knights had six games with at least 200 rushing yards, the most in a season since 2007.
 - RB Kyle Monangai led the Big Ten with 1,262 rushing yards in becoming the eighth player in program history to record a 1,000-yard rushing season and first since Jawan Jamison in 2012. Monangai's Second Team All-Big Ten selection is the highest for a Rutgers running back since joining the league. The season total is tied for fourth-best in the team record book.

 - RB Kyle Monangai had seven games with at least 100 yards, the most since Ray Rice had 10 such games in 2007. That included a high of 165 versus Temple and 159 versus No. 1/3 Ohio State, the second-most ever for a Scarlet Knight against a ranked opponent.
 - QB Gavin Wimsatt set a Rutgers quarterback record with 497 rushing yards, most in the Big Ten and No. 20 nationally among quarterbacks. His 143 rushing yards at Indiana set an RU game high for a quarterback.
 - Rutgers rushed for 24 touchdowns, third in the Big Ten, after posting 11 in 2022. Six different Scarlet Knights rushed for a touchdown, led by 11 by QB Gavin Wimsatt (four games with multiple rushing scores), ninth-most in a season in program history and most ever by a quarterback. The total also led Big Ten quarterbacks in 2023, ranked tied for sixth among quarterbacks nationally and tied for third among all Big Ten players. It was the first time a Scarlet Knight reached double-digit rushing touchdowns in a season since Ray Rice (24) in 2007. Wimsatt recorded a high of three rushing touchdowns in the win at Indiana, matching the RU Big Ten game record, previously posted twice by Robert Martin (2014 Indiana & 2015 Indiana), and capped the same game with an 80-yard dash, tying Isiah Pacheco (2018 Michigan) for the longest run by a Scarlet Knight in Big Ten play. The 80-yard rush was also the third-longest by a Big Ten player on the season.
 - Rutgers led the Big Ten with 59 percent running plays according to Pro Football Focus. That included a high of 55 attempts at Indiana, tied for the most carries by the Scarlet Knights in a Big Ten game since joining the conference. The 276 rushing yards that game set an RU Big Ten game record.
 - According to Pro Football Focus, RB Kyle Monangai graded as the top running back in the Big Ten, best in the Power 5 and No. 5 nationally, OL Hollin Pierce ranked as the sixth-best tackle in the Big Ten and WR JaQuae Jackson rated as the ninth-best wide receiver in the Big Ten.
 - Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with just 1.08 sacks allowed per game. That included four games with none permitted, 10 with one or less and no games with more than three. The total of 14 is the fewest permitted for the team in a season since 2012 (11).

2023 NOTES, RECORDS & RANKINGS

TEAM

- Rutgers (7-6) won seven games to secure its first winning season since 2014.
- Rutgers picked up three Big Ten wins to match the program high previously set in 2014, 2017 and 2020. The Scarlet Knights defeated Northwestern in opening the season with a Big Ten home game for the first time, overcame an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter to top Michigan State and rushed for a season-high 276 yards to beat Indiana for the third consecutive year.
- Rutgers went 4-0 in non-conference games to improve to 50-20 in such games under head coach Greg Schiano. The Scarlet Knights have won seven consecutive non-conference games and 11 of the last 12. That included snapping double-digit losing streaks to ACC opponents and former conference foes Virginia Tech (12) and Miami (11) this past season.
- Rutgers was one of two Big Ten teams to improve by at least three wins compared to 2022 (Northwestern +7).
- Rutgers' 2023 strength of schedule ranked No. 2 nationally heading into bowl season and finished No. 4 and highest among Big Ten teams according to the ESPN College Football Power Index. Eight opponents from the regular season appeared in bowl games, including three in the New Year's Six with Michigan winning the national championship.
- Rutgers went 5-2 at home, the best home record since 2013. The Scarlet Knights won their first five home games in a season for the first time since 2006.
- Rutgers sold out four games (Northwestern, Virginia Tech, Michigan State, Ohio State) to make it seven games with an attendance of at least 52,454 over the last two years.
- Rutgers saw 13 different players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the second-highest total for the program behind the 14 honored in 2020.
- Rutgers ranked 24th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten with an average time of possession of 31:47 per game, up from 29:11 in 2022. It was the highest number for the Scarlet Knights since 2011 (32:55). That included 11 quarters possessing the ball for at least 10 minutes, five such fourth quarters. In Big Ten play, the Scarlet Knights averaged 31:06, the highest mark for a season in conference play since joining the league and second time topping 30 minutes (2015, 30:48).
- Rutgers scored 302 points, the most for the team since 2015.
- Rutgers scored 37 touchdowns, 12 more than in 2022.
- Rutgers dropped to 45.2 penalty yards per game from 64.2 in 2022 (-19). The Scarlet Knights ranked No. 31 nationally with only 5.1 penalties per game.
- Rutgers had four games with no turnovers and five games with no turnovers on offense. The Scarlet Knights are 13-1 since 2020 when not committing a turnover in a game. The 13 turnovers lost ranked 18th fewest nationally.
- Rutgers finished the season with a +5 turnover margin, fourth in the Big Ten (0.38). The Scarlet Knights won or neutralized the turnover battle in 11-of-13 games.
- Fifty-one student-athletes were named to the 2023 Fall Academic All-Big Ten listing. OL Reggie Sutton earned his fifth career selection, while DL Mayan Ahanotu, TE Johnny Langan and RB Aaron Young each received their fourth honor.

- Rutgers ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten and 12th nationally with just 4.1 tackles-for-loss permitted per game.
- Thirteen of the 34 offensive touchdown drives were 10 or more plays, topped by the matching 16-play touchdown drives on the first two series of the season versus Northwestern. Ten touchdown drives took at least five minutes and 17 went at least 70 yards.
- Rutgers went 16-for-25 on fourth down, ranking No. 25 nationally at 64 percent. The Scarlet Knights were 37 percent on third down, up from 28 percent the year before, being 50 percent in the fourth quarter (18-for-36).
- Rutgers received the opening kickoff three times, scoring a touchdown each time (Northwestern, Michigan, Miami). Overall, the Scarlet Knights scored points on their opening drive eight times (five touchdowns, three field goals).
- Rutgers saw three offensive linemen honored in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program at the position in a year since joining the league.

DEFENSE

- Rutgers ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era and best since 2012 (311.6, 10th nationally). RU held five opponents under 300 yards in 2023. The Scarlet Knights have improved by 83 yards per game since 2021.
- In Big Ten play, Rutgers posted its best mark for total defense in a conference season since joining the league (337.9). The number surpasses the previous low of 386.2 in 2022.
- The season-low 106 yards allowed against Wagner are the fewest permitted in a game under head coach Greg Schiano.
- Rutgers ranked 32nd nationally with a scoring defense of 21.2, its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era and best since 2012 (14.2, fourth nationally). RU held 10 opponents under 30 points, five under 20 points and three in single digits.
- In Big Ten play, Rutgers posted its best mark for scoring defense in a conference season since joining the league (25.1). It was the second time holding opponents under 30 points per game in the Big Ten (2021, 29.0).
- Rutgers ranked 10th nationally in passing defense (176.3), holding nine opponents under 200 yards, five under 150 and two under 100. The Scarlet Knights have improved by 58.6 passing yards per game since 2021.
- The 13 pass breakups versus Temple were the most in a game under head coach Greg Schiano.
- Rutgers' rushing defense mark of 137.2 was the best for the team in the Big Ten era. Eight opponents were held under 150 rushing yards and three under 100. That included holding Northwestern to 12 rushing yards, the fewest allowed against a Big Ten opponent since joining the conference.
- Rutgers ranked 15th nationally in red zone defense (75.6 percent), posting 11 stops, up from two stops in 2022.
- Rutgers ranked second in the Big Ten with nine fumbles recovered, seeing opponents fumble 17 times (10 forced).
- Rutgers posted 14 stops on fourth down, including four in the red zone.
- LB Deion Jennings ranked 10th in the Big Ten with 7.3 tackles per game, while LB Mohamed Toure placed 12th at 7.2.
- LB Mohamed Toure posted 4.5 sacks, having led the team in sacks each of the past three seasons played (2023, 2021, 2020). Overall, 12 different Scarlet Knights were in on a sack in 2023.
- DB Desmond Igbinosun recorded four tackles-for-loss against Michigan State to set a Rutgers Big Ten game record.
- DB Robert Longerbeam was one of two Big Ten players with at least 10 pass breakups, ranking fourth in the league with 0.85 passes defended per game (10 breakups, one interception).
- DB Max Melton led the team with three interceptions, posting multiple picks each of the past three seasons.
- According to the Pro Football Focus Big Ten rankings, LB Mohamed Toure graded as the No. 7 linebacker in the league, DB Max Melton as the No. 11 cornerback, DL Aaron Lewis as the No. 12 edge defender and DB Flip Dixon as the No. 12 safety.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Rutgers led the nation with three blocked kicks, scoring two touchdowns directly off blocked punts (Indiana, Miami). The Scarlet Knights have blocked 71 kicks overall (41 punts, 17 field goals, 13 extra points) under head coach Greg Schiano. That includes a 9-4 record when returning or recovering a blocked punt for a touchdown in a game.
 - Rutgers leads the nation with eight blocked punts over the last two seasons.
- Most Blocked Punts (2022-23)*
- > 1. Rutgers: 8
 - > T2. Bowling Green: 7
 - > T2. Notre Dame: 7
 - > T2. South Carolina: 7
 - > T5. Five teams: 5
- Rutgers scored a third non-offensive touchdown when RB Aaron Young recovered a muffed punt snap in the end zone to spark the comeback versus Michigan State. That makes it 62 non-offensive touchdowns under head coach Greg Schiano, including 11 since 2020. The Scarlet Knights are 38-17 in games with a special teams or defensive touchdown under Schiano.
 - PK Jai Patel went 15-of-18 (83.3 percent) on field goals, the most accurate season in program history (minimum 15 attempts). He became the third Scarlet Knights kicker to earn all-conference honors (Jeremy Ito, Justin Davidovicz).
- Season Field Goal Percentage (minimum 15 attempts)*
- > 1. Jai Patel (2023): 83.3 (15-18)
 - > 2. Alex Falcinelli (1982): 80.0 (12-15)
 - > 3. Kennan Startzell (1978): 79.0 (15-19)
 - PK Jai Patel went 13-of-14 on attempts inside of 50 yards, adding successful attempts from 50 and 51 yards. The 51-yarder against Temple tied for the seventh-longest make in program history and was part of earning Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week on Sept. 11. He had four games with multiple makes, including three against Temple and Ohio State (tied RU Big Ten game record). The 15 makes overall are tied for ninth-most in the program record book.
 - P Flynn Appleby and the punt unit posted a net average of 38.8 yards per attempt, downing 20 inside the 20 with 32 fair catches forced, one touchback and none blocked. That includes holding opponents to just 25 return yards on four attempts, just two positive returns against. The 75-yard punt at Michigan was the longest in the Big Ten all season and tied for the fifth-longest attempt in program history.
 - Rutgers led the nation with an average of 33.0 yards per kickoff return.

"Old" Rutgers Stadium

Dedicated on November 5, 1938 at the Rutgers-Princeton game, the Stadium had its first game two weeks earlier as Rutgers hosted Hampden-Sydney. The season finale against Lafayette was the third game in the Stadium. Rutgers won all three contests and did not lose at the site until the sixth game in 1940, a 7-6 loss to Lafayette. Rutgers won the first 13 Stadium games, including seven straight in 1939.

Years	Record
1938-1992	168-53-4

Giants Stadium

Rutgers played the first college game at the venue in 1976 and used the NFL stadium as a "home away from home," including an appearance in the 1978 Garden State Bowl.

Year	Record

HISTORY & TRADITION

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

NOV. 6, 1869: THE FIRST GAME

THE FIRST GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of The Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same head-long running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in The Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable 'feed together,'" the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

PAUL ROBESON

THE HISTORY OF RUTGERS FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former long-time sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

1869-1912: The Birthplace of College Football

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Entering its 155th season in 2024, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

1913-1925: 'A Tradition of Success Begins'

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

1925-1960: Making a Mark on the Collegiate Landscape

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.

1961-1972: RU's First Undefeated Season

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 11 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

NATE TORAN

1973-1983: The Burns Era & 1976

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards (third in Rutgers history) and 21 touchdowns (second).

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "near-misses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. The gracious Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

1984-1989: Memorable Upsets

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyronne Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

1990-1999: BIG EAST, Big Games

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. Rutgers teams have been at their best at the stadium, compiling a 237-120-4 (.662) record there since 1938. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."

2000-2005: Schiano's Arrival

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football, Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

RANDY JACKSON

2006: Pandemonium in Piscataway

In 2006, Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

2007-11: Sustained Success

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family, Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season – culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

PANDEMONIUM IN PISCATAWAY

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first-round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating Iowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2012: Big East Champions

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft.

Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. Following a 52-51 loss in overtime at Fresno State, RU rattled off four straight wins. The winning streak was highlighted by a comeback win over Arkansas in the first visit by an SEC team to Piscataway. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. Other conference victories included a late fourth quarter win with the hurry-up offense versus Temple and a postseason-clinching performance on Senior Night against USF. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

SEPT. 13, 2014: FIRST BIG TEN GAME

2014-19: Big Ten - Our New Home

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continued to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally. The program added a number of facility upgrades during his tenure, including the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex and the Brown Family Football Locker Room.

Culminating a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first college football game, Rutgers marked the occasion on Nov. 6, 2019 with the Ringing of the Bells at Old Queens and the unveiling of a new plaque at the site celebrating its 6-4 win over Princeton.

2020: Welcome Back, Coach Schiano

With a change of leadership announced during the 2019 season, Rutgers announced the return of Schiano as head football coach on Dec. 3, 2019. The Scarlet Knights improved immediately during Schiano's first season back, as it matched its program high with three Big Ten victories during the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. Rutgers had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league.

The progress continued in 2021 with the program's first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN.

In 2022, the victory over Temple marked the 79th win for head coach Greg Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set an average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history.

The Scarlet Knights' upward trajectory in 2023 saw the team finish with seven wins, the program's first winning season since 2014. The campaign was capped by a 31-24 win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The regular season schedule ranked as the second-hardest nationally by ESPN, including wins over bowl participants Northwestern and Virginia Tech, plus an 18-point comeback in the fourth quarter to top Michigan State and 276 rushing yards to defeat Indiana on the road. The defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense (313.5), posting its best mark and ranking for a season in the Big Ten era. Additionally, the Scarlet Knights recorded their best numbers in Big Ten play for total (337.9) and scoring defense (25.1). Overall, RU held 10 opponents under 30 points, five under 20 points and three in single digits. RB Kyle Monangai highlighted the offensive production with a Big Ten-best 1,262 rushing yards, tied for fourth-most in a season in Rutgers history.

The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with DB Max Melton drafted by the Cardinals in 2024 and seven others signing contracts, making it over 100 Scarlet Knights to the NFL under Schiano.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

HOMER HAZEL (CLASS OF 1951)

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE (CLASS OF 1955)

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD (CLASS OF 1971)

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

ALL-AMERICANS

HARVEY HARMAN (CLASS OF 1981)

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the team until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

PAUL ROBESON (CLASS OF 1995)

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four-straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL (CLASS OF 1997)

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing touchdown to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

PHOENIX – In a Wild West shootout staged at Phoenix's Chase Stadium, Rutgers fell just short of the program's first bowl victory, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard touchdown drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

HOUSTON – Rutgers' most memorable season ended with another milestone victory. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two touchdown passes, and the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights won a bowl game for the first time, beating Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, 37-10. Linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half and Rutgers cruised from there, earning an 11th victory for the second time in the school's history. Rice was named the game's Most Valuable Player after topping 100 yards for the 10th time this season and the 15th time in 25 career games. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore went over 150 yards for the fifth time this season. The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense manhandled Kansas State's offense, holding the Wildcats to 160 total yards and six first downs. Freshman quarterback Josh Freeman finished 10-for-21 for 124 yards with two interceptions. Kansas State mustered only 94 yards after Frierson's return of Freeman's first interception put Rutgers up 24-10 only 33 seconds out of halftime.

TORONTO – In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl, 29-23. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak. NC State held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Te after a 10-play 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida, 45-24, in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a touchdown. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State, 27-13, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against No. 2 Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 131 yards on 27 carries.

ORLANDO – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers linebacker Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

BRONX, N.Y. – A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

DETROIT – In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total of the season.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Rutgers football lost to No. 20 Wake Forest, 38-10, in the 77th TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, held at TIAA Bank Field. With the 2021 bowl season impacted by the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights put together a roster to compete on just nine days' notice after they were selected to compete in the prestigious Gator Bowl, the sixth-oldest bowl game, on Dec. 23. Quarterback Johnny Langan earned Rutgers' MVP for the game with 57 receiving yards on a career-high six receptions, 20 rushing yards and two completions for 21 yards. Running back Aaron Young scored his team-leading sixth touchdown of the season on the team's opening possession and quarterback Gavin Wimsatt produced a team-long 32-yard rush. On defense, Mohamed Toure (1.5), Desmond Igbinosun (1.0) and Drew Singleton (0.5) all contributed sacks, while Kessawn Abraham led the way with two passes batted away. RU posted eight tackles-for-loss, including one to force a fumble by Igbinosun. Toure recorded a team-high seven tackles to match his career high. After Wake Forest found the end zone on its first possession, Rutgers responded with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Noah Vedral completed long third-down completions to Matt Alaimo, Jovani Haskins and Joshua Youngblood to set up a 12-yard touchdown run by Young with 5:11 left in the quarter. The Demon Deacons would add another touchdown for a 14-7 advantage at the end of one. The Scarlet Knights marched into enemy territory on their following possession to open the second quarter. Wide receiver Isaiah Washington threw across the field to Johnny Langan for a 27-yard gain, while placekicker Valentino Ambrosio drilled a 28-yard field goal four plays later to make it 14-10 with 12:02 left in the quarter. RU's defense held strong for the remainder of the first half, as it allowed just two field goals.

BRONX, N.Y. – Rutgers football (7-6) defeated Miami (7-6), 31-24, at the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. It marked the program's seventh bowl championship, sixth under head coach Greg Schiano and second victory in the Pinstripe Bowl, as the Scarlet Knights secured their first winning season since 2014.

Down 17-14 with just over 10 minutes left in the third quarter, RU scored 17 unanswered points to collect the win over the Hurricanes. DB Trevor Yeboah-Kodie blocked a punt at Miami's one-yard line, which was recovered by DB Timmy Ward in the end zone for a touchdown, while QB Gavin Wimsatt's second rushing score of the day and a 35-yard field goal from PK Jai Patel helped Rutgers to the come-from-behind victory.

RB Kyle Monangai earned the game's MVP trophy after he finished with 25 carries for 163 yards and a touchdown. It was the seventh 100-yard rushing game for Monangai, who finished the season with 1,262 yards on the ground.

LB Deion Jennings led the defense with nine tackles and one for loss, LB Mohamed Toure added eight tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a sack, while freshman LB Abram Wright recorded his first career interception.

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

JONATHAN HOLLOWAY PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Jonathan Holloway, a U.S. historian, took office as the 21st president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2020. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the presidency of Rutgers, Dr. Holloway was provost of Northwestern University from 2017 to 2020 and a member of the faculty of Yale University from 1999 to 2017. At Yale, he served as Dean of Yale College and the Edmund S. Morgan Professor of African American Studies, History, and American Studies.

President Holloway's scholarly work specializes in post-emanicipation U.S. history with a focus on social and intellectual history.

He is the author of African American History: A Very Short Introduction and The Cause of Freedom: A Concise History of African Americans (Oxford University Press, February 2023 and February 2021, respectively). He also published Confronting the Veil: Abram Harris Jr., E. Franklin Frazier, and Ralph Bunche, 1919-1941 (2002), and Jim Crow Wisdom: Memory and Identity in Black America Since 1940 (2013), both with the University of North Carolina Press. He edited Ralph Bunche's A Brief and Tentative Analysis of Negro Leadership (New York University Press, 2005) and coedited Black Scholars on the Line: Race, Social Science, and American Thought in the Twentieth Century (Notre Dame University Press, 2007). He wrote the introduction for the 2015 edition of W.E.B. Du Bois's Souls of Black Folk (Yale University Press), and is working on a new book, A History of Absence: Race and the Making of the Modern World.

Dr. Holloway, who began his academic career at the University of California, San Diego, received a bachelor's degree with honors in American studies from Stanford University and a Ph.D. in history from Yale University.

He serves on boards of the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the Gates Cambridge Trust, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Universities Research Association, the Institute of International Education, and the Academic Leadership Institute.

Dr. Holloway is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Society of American Historians. He is a Fellow of the Council on Foreign Relations.

He is married to Aisling Colón. They have a daughter, Emerson, and son, Ellison.

Jimmy Gill has worked with Rutgers football since 2013 and is in his fourth season as the primary communications contact for the program after being promoted to associate athletic director. He first joined the athletic communications office in 2011 for one academic year before heading to Miami (Fla.) and returning to be part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten. Gill also served 11 seasons as the baseball contact and eight as the gymnastics contact for the Scarlet Knights. In 2022, RU saw P Adam Korsak win the Ray Guy Award in becoming the first player program history to win a national on-field award. Gill was promoted from assistant director of athletic communications to associate director in June 2014 and was part of the 2014 staff that was honored by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as a recipient of the Super 11 Award. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. After the football season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as athletic communications assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. He successfully promoted the Big East Player of the Year for baseball in addition to expanding the social media presence for each of his four sports. A native of Lewes, Delaware, he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working towards his master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior in 2010. An outfielder, he left in the top-10 in program history in games played, doubles, RBIs and single-season home runs. Gill resides in Piscataway.

Hasim Phillips serves as Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Communications Officer, with oversight of the department's communication, brand advancement and R/Vision staffs. Phillips serves as the primary spokesman for the department and is a member of the executive leadership team. Prior to his elevation to overseeing the communications staff, Phillips was the lead media relations contact for the football program, handling all media inquiries for the program's coaches and players. Additionally, he was the executive producer for the "RFootball Show," a 12-episode television series with distribution throughout the East Coast from New York to areas in South Florida. Phillips also managed all football related content on the school's official athletics website (ScarletKnights.com) and social media channels. For Phillips, this is the second stint with Rutgers Athletics, having previously served with the department from 2004-2012. He began his career in athletic communications at Rutgers in 2004, serving as an assistant until 2007 before becoming an Assistant Director for Athletic Communications from 2007-11. While at Rutgers, he was a member of an athletic communications staff that was twice (2009, 2010) recognized by the Football Writers Association of America as a "Super 11" communications department, awarded to the top PR offices in the country. In 2011, he was elevated to the role of Associate Director of Athletic Communications, serving as the primary media contact for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer and the women's basketball team. Phillips joined The Madison Square Garden Company in 2012 as Manager for Corporate Communications. He assisted in the publicity efforts of the MSG Sports brand, helping promote marketing partnerships and new business initiatives. He also worked to promote the New York Knicks' community service initiative "Basketball in the Boroughs," securing targeted media opportunities to highlight the franchise's work in the community. He was involved with press event planning in the corporate and sports business areas, including the grand reopening event following a historic three-phase, top-to-bottom transformation of Madison Square Garden. He also assisted in preparing senior level management for speaking engagements and developing press materials for marketing partner announcements. Phillips also managed inquiries regarding the use of MSG trademarks or logos in television or film projects. He was responsible for script review and concept approval in addition to working with production crews while filming on site at Madison Square Garden. He served as a liaison between MSG, the corporate offices of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Hockey League (NHL), and several major motion picture and television studios. Phillips, a native of Brooklyn, New York, is a 2004 graduate of Rutgers University with a degree in sports management. He earned his MBA in marketing and strategy from the Rutgers School of Business in 2019. Phillips resides in Metuchen, New Jersey, with his wife Catherine and their sons, Malakai and Miles.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

COMMISSIONER TONY PETITTI

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal. The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on January 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics. At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence. In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

RUTGERS FOOTBALL

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members. In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins also was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit the University of California, Los Angeles and the University of Southern California to the conference effective August 2, 2024. Competition will begin for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year. In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama. The experience was so transformational for all involved that the Big Ten returned to Selma and Montgomery in 2023, not just for the Big Life Series visit, but also a separate trip for a youth tennis clinic featuring conference student-athletes and staff.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion. On August, 4, 2023, the Big Ten The Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective August 2, 2024, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington would also join the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.
